The Tucumcari News has just gotten out a fine special edition 28 pages, illustrated, on the city of Tucumcari and Quay county. We congratulate the News on its effort and feel that great good will come from it to that section.—Capitan News.

The Tucumcari News came out last week in a special edition of twenty-eight pages which is a credit to the editor and his staff, Tucumcari, and Quay county. It is a well gotten up description of the city and surrounding country, as well as of other towns in this country, accompanied by cuts of various places of interest, business houses, etc.—Nara Visa Record.

this week as a special edition. It is one of the best specials, to our knowledge, that has ever been issued in this part of the country.
It is filled with the good things of Tucumcari and Quay county, embellished with half-tones printed right, and all through it is a work of art and the citizens should be proud of it.—Nara Visa New Mexican.

Real estate is not the only thing selling in Tucumcari this week, the weather bureau is doing us a summer stunt that is calling attention to the rise in the mercury and the bulls hold the ice market with little difficulty. But while the merchant mops his forehead, piece and kicks about his temperature, the farmer observes in a satisfactory manner the corn growing on his homestead and feels sure of providence for another season.

The Tucumcari News comes to our table this week as a twenty-eight page special illustrated edition, which is highly creditable to the publishers and to the community where it is published. A shrewd old business man once made the remark that the development of the state of Colorado was due more to the news papers than to any other one thing.
Granting the truth of this statement, and no one will contradict it Tucumcari is on a broad foundation for future greatness, and we are pleased to note that the business of the town are giving liberal support to the enterprising publishers of the News. Carrizozo Outlook.

It may be a fresh specimen of the Tucumcari News' optimism, that announcement of the completion of the Choctaw extension from Amarillo to Tucumcari, but more likely it is a necessity of the transportation trade. That connection has been necessary for a long time and that it has not been done before is one of the wonders of rail road building, for the eastern connection is the one thing necessary to make up for the fool policy of C. B. Eddy in building the southern division of the El Paso line in the direction he did through high mountains and tapping a country that had little in it worth while.

With the line to the east a vast amount of traffic to the El Paso gateway will go over the Rock Island, and it will make a splendid town of Tucumcari, which is ideally located for the western division.
It will help Amarillo too, though that hot, blizzardy, bare, muddy, dusty, windy, treeless town will not need much more to be a second Wichita.—Roswell Register Tribune.

Willard Belknap, the Nara Visa lawyer and land man, the man who started the town and who did most to build it, was here Monday to bring matters before the commissioners court which are interesting the people of that section.

Willard Belknap of Nara Visa, informs this paper that his town has grown from a rail road station to a city of 700 to 800 people this year and that the lands are being taken as rapidly as settlement can be made. They are getting a population of Iowans who know how to farm for a profit and agriculture is going to have some very careful attention.

Pete Essary has just returned from a weeks trip to Rosevelt in Roswell county. He tells this paper that that country is growing as rapidly as this section and that the season has been such that the farmers are all prospering. The stockmen, particularly the sheep men, the Fuller ranches, will have 90 per cent of lambs and will shear more wool this year than ever in the history of that section.

BASE BALL GAME SUNDAY

Nara Visa Walloped Us Until They Made Us Like It. Was a Good Game and Enjoyed by Several Hundred People.

SPECIAL TRAIN CHARTERED By Nara Visa People to Bring the Crowd from That City.

One of the greatest base ball games ever played in this vicinity was pulled off Sunday between Nara Visa and our local team. The full nine innings were played fast and furious and everybody enjoyed the game from start to finish. The score stood 3 to 5 in favor of Nara Visa. Tucumcari put up a good, strong game through the fifth inning, when the hoops began to loosen on some of the men who had had little practice this season.
Then Nara Visa ran away from them by scoring twice together.

There were 160 passengers on the special from Nara Visa, Clayton, Dalhart and adjacent communities.
They were a bunch of representative people and we thoroughly enjoyed their visit.
Nara Visa is the second largest town in the county, and if they continue to grow and play ball at us with the vim they exhibited Sunday we may get jealous—but we won't.

Melrose-Tucumcari Auto Line in Operation Next Week.

We are informed by Rev. J. W.
Campbell that the Melrose-Tucumcari auto line will make the first trip between that city and Tucumcari next week. The midway station is Hartford. A passengers' daily service will be had between Tucumcari and Melrose.

John F. Seaman has been a scarlet fever victim for two weeks, and while he is able to be up, is not yet capable of attending to business.

small pox last week is reported convalescent. Strict quarantine is being kept and there is little danger of a contagion.

ialist at the Elk drug store, has returned from Roswell where he went for registration. Shelton is registered in Missouri, Kansas and New Mexico, and is a thoroughly proficient druggist.

The question of sanitation is getting to be a problem in Tucumcari, and those who have filth and garbage about their business or residences had better get busy because there is not going to be any foolishness about the enforcement of this measure. Clean up. That is a good policy in any country at any and all times.

The finest crops and some of the choicest lands in Quay county are at Endee. Endee is 40 miles east of Tucumcari and situated near the Texas line, is favorable located for a townsite. There is an abundance of water at shallow depths and many other advantages that make the homeseeker opportunities to be had in few places in the Southwest.

Simpson and Campbell are beginning their new building.

W. F. Kelsay was in town Tuesday attending to business matters.

Mrs. G. W. Evans has been sick several days, but is improving at this time.

T. L. Welch is pushing the Quay townsite. He sold twenty to thirty lots last week.

Miss Bessie Shaw is resting a month before going to Kansas City to attend a business college.

man, and brother-in-law of J. M.
Alvey, was here the first of the week visiting them.

James Whitmore, bookkeeper for Gross, Kelly & Logan, was among the visitors from that town Sunday to see the ball game.

Col. T. W. Heman is building a sidewalk in front of his office and adjacent property. Helps the appearance of things.

A. A. Blankenship will build a stable south of the Plaza Hotel.
The building will cover two lots, a space of 100x142 feet.

C. P. Jones, the banker and merchant at Santa Rosa, was here several days and bought some Tucumcari real estate before returning.

Willard Belknap, James Daugherty, Knight & Searcy, Ball, Gregg, O'Neill and other prominent Nara Visa people were with the ball team here Sunday.

John Morris, son of G. H. Morris at Solana, killed a Mexican at Campana. Officers took him to Las Vegas. We know little of the affair, but the reports brought into Tucumcari are that the Mexican made at Morris with a knife and was shot.

Mrs. J. A. Cook is here visiting Mrs. J. L. Albright.

Miss Maggie Teller returned Thursday evening from Pittsburg, Kansas, where she spent three weeks with friends and relatives.

Capt. J. H. Conlen, grain dealer at Dalhart, Attorney Tatum, Dr.
Hedrick and other Dalhart people were here on the excursion Sunday
to see the ball game.

The county commissioners are in session this week as a board of equalization and have been putting in time like employees on a railroad grade. They have had a busy week.

Residence lots in the Highland Park Addition are selling every day.
If you are looking for a choice location to build on this is the place to find it. 6-8-11 mer's visit among relatives in New York and Pennsylvania. They will attend the Jamestown Exposition while away.

Rev. L. B. Grogan and nephew, A. E. Grogan of Revuelto, were Tucumcari visitors Monday. They are trying to get a post office out there and are starting a town.

See the Evans Realty Company for residence property in Highland Park. This is an ideal spot on which to build a home. Buy now while lots may be had at a bargain.
It is all good, every foot of it, and you can not make a mistake by nounce that there will be a box supper at the Lloyd school house tonight (Saturday) and everybody is invited.

lots in the Highland Park Addition.
This site overlooks the city and is soon to be the residence district of Tucumcari. 6-8-11
